The Retro Report: LA Gear's Are Here

Now anybody who had COCA style back in the late 80's, early 90's can't forget about LA Gear's. I personally had a couple light up one's that I wish would just pop up in my grandma's basement one day but onto the post...LA Gears are looking to resurface majorly. The brand recently linked up with the LA shoe store chain Sportie LA to re-release several of LA Gear's vintage styles. Originally released back in 1989-90 as part of LA Gear's "Unstoppable" line, the 2008-09 retro's will feature the LA Gear K.A.J, Star Shooter and the Fire. If you're in the LA area you may catch some in your local Sportie LA store. As soon as these are available to buy online you know where to catch the purchase link. That's COCA for ya.
