

People moves

Gotham Inc. names Letitia Jacobs as its head of content/managing partner; Stink signs Christian Bevilacqua; Henry de Czar opens in Paris; People moves at Zoic Studios, Infinite Corridor and Wilfrid Park

by: Boards Editorial
December 3, 2009

New York-based agency Gotham Inc has named former freelance broadcast producer Letitia Jacobs as its head of content/managing partner.

Stink, London has signed director Christian Bevilacqua.

Executive producers Jeanluc Bergeron and Jean Ozannat have launched a production company in Paris called Henry de Czar. The company will rep Lionel Goldstein, Joe Vanouttenham, Lieven Van Baelen, Bart Timmer, Mattias Schut, Raf Wathion, Guy Schelmerdine, Toon Aerts, Erik Bulckens, Koen Mortier, Minivegas, Joeri Holsheimer and Ruairi Robinson.

Zoic Studios, Los Angeles has launched a design division headed up by executive producer Miles Dinsmoor and creative director Derich Wittliff.

London-based Annex Films and David Baksh/Projects have joined forces to launch digital production lab Infinite Corridor, headed up by David Baksh, James Smith-Rewse and Andy Packer.

Philadelphia-based creative agency/production studio BIGSMACKtv has added directors Manuel Miranda, Jeff Phillips and Scott Whitham to its roster and promoted Heidi Frederick Erney and Kelly Dials to executive producers.

Wilfrid Park, Toronto has signed HSI London directors Thomas Napper, Rankin & Chris, Andy Lambert, Delcan Lowney and Jim Canty for Canadian spot rep.

Director/photographer Tim Damon has combined his live-action and print companies to form integrated prodco Square Planet. Damon is joined by fellow directors/DPs/photographers Scott McCullough, Toshi Oku and Doug Taub.