

ON THE MOVE

October 2007

Moves this week at Looking Glass Films, Circle Productions, Merge at Crossroads, Park Pictures, Euro RSCG Worldwide New York, Company 3, Über Content, 2AM, Avion Film Productions

One of the rising stars of shots' new directors Class of 2007, Chad Einbinder has been signed by Looking Glass Films for US and UK spot representation. For the rest of Europe and Latin America, Einbinder is with Carbo Films.

Director Zach Lipovsky, a recent finalist in Fox TV's reality show On The Lot, has signed to Circle Productions for Canadian spot representation.

Merge at Crossroads Films UK has signed New York based director Adria Petty for UK music video representation. In the US she remains with Los Angeles' DNA for music videos and Harvest Films for commercials.

Director Chris Sargent has signed to Park Pictures for US commercial representation. Untitled, who previously repped him globally, now represent him in Canada.

Euro RSCG Worldwide New York has hired Robert Kleman as an executive creative director.

He was previously at TBWA\Chiat\Day. Kleman is joined by Publicis New York's Jason Levine. Both start their new jobs later this month.

LA's Company 3 has hired senior colourist Tom Poole. Previously at The Mill, New York, he will work on commercials, music videos and feature films in his new position.

Directing duo Gentlemen, comprising Brett Snider and Billy Federighi, have been signed by Über Content for US spot representation. Look out for them on shots' New Directors reel 2007.

Director Jonas Arnby has been signed for UK commercial representation by 2AM. He remains with Les Producers for the French and Asian market.

George Willis has been signed by Avion Film Productions for commercial representation in Canada and the US.